++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and bright with some sunny spells.

Today:
It will be fine dry and bright day across much of the country with some sunshine. However, cloudy across the Northern Isles and parts of the northeast with rain and drizzle at first in Shetland.

Tonight:
Rain and drizzle will nudge into the Hebrides and west coast. Dry with clear spells across much of the mainland with mist and fog patches. Strengthening winds around northern coasts.

Sunday:
Mainly cloudy with the best of the brightness around the Moray Firth and eastern Borders. Patchy rain and drizzle around western coast, the rain turning heavier across the northwest later.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Patchy rain slow to clear the south on Monday, the north mainly dry and bright. Windy with occasional rain or showers on Tuesday and Wednesday, brightest in the east.
